The U.S. Geological Survey and predecessor U.S. Bureau of Mines documents were accessed from here (for pre-1994 publications): <https://minerals.usgs.gov/minerals/pubs/usbmmyb.html>. U.S. Geological Survey Domestic Area Reports for Michigan from 1994 to 2014 from here:

In both cases, the Minerals Yearbook files were scanned and archived by the University of Wisconsin Ecology and Natural Resources Collection. Steve Wilson at the end of his career at the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality pushed for the preservation of Michigan's Geological Survey Publications – his efforts are available online at: http://www.michigan.gov/documents/deq/GIMDL-Catalog-2010-01-20_307979_7.pdf, which was used as the source of digital Michigan publications.
